DELTA SIGMA THETA SORORITY, INC.

Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated is a private, not-for-profit organization whose purpose is to provide assistance and support through established programs in local communities throughout the world. The sorority currently has 1,050 collegiate and alumnae chapters located in the United States, Canada, Japan (Tokyo and Okinawa), Germany, the Virgin Islands, Bermuda, the Bahamas, Jamaica, West Africa, Southern Africa, United Arab Emirates and the Republic of Korea.

QUEENS ALUMNAE CHAPTER

The Queens Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated was chartered on June 4, 1951. Each year the chapter implements a full-program agenda that encompasses each aspect of the Sorority's Five-Point Programmatic Thrust: Economic Development, Educational Development, International Awareness and Involvement, Physical and Mental Health, and Political Awareness and Involvement.

Currently, the chapter has over 200 members; all hold a minimum of a Bachelor's degree. The charge of the Queens Alumnae chapter continues to be that of offering programs and services for the betterment of humanity. Some of the programs and services that the chapter sponsors in the Queens community include:

- △ Scholarship Awards
- △ Teen Lift Annual Tour of Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCU)
- △ Social Action Program Initiatives
- △ Project Cherish - Restoration of the house of African-American inventor Lewis H. Latimer
- △ Adoption of the New Horizon School for students with special needs in Accra, Ghana
- △ The Dr. Betty Shabazz Delta Academy (Girls 11-14)
- △ Delta GEMS: Growing and Empowering Myself Successfully (Girls 14-18)
- △ EMBODI: Empowering Males to Build Opportunities for Developing Independence
- △ Economic Development
- △ International Awareness and Involvement
- △ Physical & Mental Health

If you are interested in applying for one or both of these scholarships, please note you must meet both the Queens Alumnae Chapter scholarship criteria and the criteria for the additional scholarship(s) you would like to be considered for as indicated by your selection below:

□ Ethel Cuff Black Scholarship

A long-time resident of St. Albans, New York, Ethel Cuff Black was born in Wilmington, Delaware. Hailing from a long line of great leaders, Ethel's father was a banker in an African American owned business and her maternal grandfather was a Civil War veteran. During her formative years, Ethel lived in Bordentown, New Jersey and attended the Industrial School for Colored Youth where she graduated with the highest-grade point average at that time. Ethel went on to attend the prestigious Howard University in Washington, D.C., where she served as chairwoman of the collegiate chapter of the YWCA and was one of the twenty-two courageous women that founded Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. She would later help to Charter the Queens Alumnae Chapter on June 4, 1951.

Upon graduating from Howard University, Ethel began her teaching career in Kentucky and Oklahoma City. In 1922, Ethel returned to Washington, D.C. and worked for the U.S. Census Bureau. While there, she received the call to serve on the faculty of Delaware State College. Upon moving to New York, Ethel became the first African American teacher in Rochester. She concluded her long and inspiring teaching career as a teacher with the New York City school system, a position she held until she retired. Throughout her life, Ethel remained extremely active in community and civic affairs until her passing on September 17, 1977.

Interested candidates must meet the following additional criteria to be eligible:

- △ Candidate must be female.
- △ Candidate must be interested in pursuing a career as an educator.

□ Emalena Jones Davis North Scholarship

Emalena Jones Davis North was a Charter member of the Queens Alumnae Chapter. For over 60 years, she was a member of Corona Congregational Church where she served as a Sunday School Teacher, Superintendent of Sunday school, and Church Historian.

In addition to her membership with the Queens Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., she was an active member in many organizations and took on numerous leadership roles. She was a graduate mother and past president of Jack and Jill of America, Inc., Queens Chapter; a member of the Corona-East Elmhurst NAACP; former member of the North Shore Chapter of the National Association of Business and Professional Women; Past President of The Moles Social Club; AARP Past President; and a member of the Sag Harbor Hills Improvement Association. Her extensive community involvement resulted in numerous civic awards.

Interested candidates must meet the following additional criteria to be eligible:

- △ Candidate must be interested in pursuing a career in the Education field.
- △ Candidate must demonstrate leadership and community service.
